Ancient Discipline of Holistics

Saturday, December 5

9a.m. -5 p.m.

A brief exploratory seminar by George and Nancy Egger, to let you reach out and touch that multidimensional intersection where Science, Religion, Magic, and Mystery join together to form the fabric of Reality.

- 'real' alchemists aren't interested in transforming lead metal into gold. (So THERE!)
- BUT alchemy DOES deal with transformations and in transmutation--and gold IS very important to alchemists. (The reason WHY will surprise you...)
- It's just that neither of those mean, to an alchemist, quite what people have been 'lead' to THINK they do. (Go and figure!)
- So stop right now and ask yourself a question: if you can learn to transform just ONE thing in yourself and ONE thing in the world, what will those things BE?
- And are you willing to learn to see the universe a bit differently, in order to obtain that power?

This workshop is intended for people that can answer 'yes' to that question, and are open to exploring a way to find, within yourself and the universe, the path of transformation. The techniques involved are simple, and different enough that no previous experience of any kind is needed—just an open mind and the willingness to let yourself see the world with new eyes. The class is experiential in nature.
